

Rython Amlash Persia 1st Millennium Bc

650 EUR

Period : Before 16th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Terracotta

Length : 22 cm

Height : 10,5 cm

Description

Rython, container with a long pouring spout dug like a canal. They were exclusively reserved for ceremonial libations. The origin of their shape seems to belong to Eurasia in prehistoric times, but it was the Greeks and the cultures of the Mediterranean basin who appropriated it in the 2nd millennium. The Amlash culture comes from northern Iran. Orange-beige terracotta

Dimensions: 10.5 x 22 cm Amlash Persia 1st millennium BC Provenance: Former Parisian collection. *Shipping costs on quote.

Dealer

GALERIE OCARINA

Art précolombien, Archéologie, Arts premiers

Mobile : 0630229738

15 grand rue

Issigeac 24560