HISTORY: Jean and Robert Cloutier are called the twin brothers of ceramics.

After being apprentices to Lafourcade, Rivière, Georges Jouve and Pol Chambost, the brothers created their own workshop in Paris in 1955.

They participated in numerous exhibitions and were exhibited in several art galleries.

They produced decorative objects that were both functional and dreamlike.

After Paris and a brief interlude in the town of Yonne, the Cloutiers settled in the Languedoc region in the south of France.

Continually refining their ceramic processes, they are considered masters of their craft and are held in high esteem by the profession and renowned ceramic artists.
