Description

This solid cherry piece of furniture opens with a drawer in the belt and six identical, recessed drawers below, of larger dimensions. These are fitted with authentic functional locks with bronze entrances and their also original palmette keys. The facade has two detached cylindrical columns with chiseled bronze capitals and collars in the lower parts. These columns rest on rounded wooden elements. The sides of this piece of furniture have a one-piece frame to prevent the surface from cracking. The single-panel wood top, with a miter-cut frame at the front, is chamfered underneath on all three visible sides. The interiors of the drawers and the back of the cabinet are in oak. This Empire period weekly planner will please you above all for its sobriety and its warm color.  Period: Early 19th
