Description

Curved beech armchair signed below the belt Jacob & Josef Kohn Westin Atria. This Austrian company, founded in 1848, experienced particular growth when Thonet's patents concerning the curved wood technique expired. The perforated seat is decorated with engraved horseshoes and scrolls. This chair rests on four saber legs. The backrest, joined by the armrests, is curved and fan-shaped. This armchair, as solid as it is aesthetic, will appeal to fans of the art nouveau movement and lovers of noble furniture.  Period: Early 20th Century Excellent condition. Satin varnished finish Additional photos available by clicking on the following link:
