Description

Watercolor depicting an interior scene. An old man is getting ready to go out. Dry pastel and gouache highlights. Signed lower right, A. Jöhnssen. Framed under glass.

Adolf Jöhnssen (1871-1950), a German artist from Rostock, began his career as a lithographer at the Tiedemann Lithographic Institute, then worked under Friedrich Schlie at the Schwerin Museum. He then studied at the Nuremberg School of Applied Arts, before becoming a pupil of Karl Raupp at the Munich Academy of Fine Arts from 1897 to 1899. In addition to his activities as a painter and illustrator, he was also a musician, playing the lute in the Nuremberg Art Association.
