Description

A box imitating a wardrobe...

In wood inlaid with amboyna burl, cynamore, rosewood and various and with some mother-of-pearl discs

From the 1925s

FRENCH provenance

The elements are in bakelite and chrome metal

As well as the supports

A few are missing...

Gilded bronze handles

Two mirrors with large bisots

The hinges are functional

As well as the supports which can also be unfolded when the two doors are open...

Which are also curved

C It is therefore a very nice piece of cabinetmaking...

In good condition with some wear and tear from use. One handle has been glued and one Bakelite element.

It deserves to be cleaned even better.

But the whole thing is charming, in its original form. ... I have other photos I couldn't put them all if you need others no problem
