Goldsmith's hallmark (PF, a stemmed goblet and two stars) [Arminjon 1991, n°02942 p.291]

Minerva hallmark 1st title under the cup and on the stem.

Under the cup, the name Pachot was written at the tip, undoubtedly by the goldsmith before the engraving.

These traditional Burgundian wedding cups, often called "woman's cups" in inventories, were offered to brides at weddings. Here, the guilloché pattern on the foot brings a modern touch to this form attested from the end of the 17th century.

The molten silver handles are connected to the bowl by charming little heart-shaped appliques.

The mention engraved refers to Marie Claudine Pachot, born January 16, 1831 in Nanton (Saône-et-Loire), married in Nanton on January 19, 1852 with Jean Ferré, born August 13, 1826 in Jugy. Marie Claudine died in Jugy on February 23, 1897, at the age of 66.
