Description

Low sideboard in walnut fruit wood opening with two leaves and two drawers on the front, nicely molded and resting on a arched base joined by a scalloped crosspiece. The top of the buffet is made of a very beautiful walnut top. The front legs are curved. The back feet are straight. The piece of furniture has its original key and its old lock. The fittings are hand forged steel. The interior is lined with 2 shelves. Very beautiful quality French work. The piece of furniture is elegant and sober, which allows it to adapt to all interior styles. The sideboard has a very beautiful patina. Ideal dimensions. Nice storage space. Southern work from the 18th century - France
