Description

Superb bouquet of flowers represented by Modeste CARLIER signed lower left on its original canvas with its beautiful original frame also in Louis XVI style in gilded wood decorated with friezes. CARLIER is a famous Belgian painter specializing in bouquets of flowers and still lifes as represented here with a quality of striking realism for the time, this work is part of the best period of his production around 1860/70. Exceptional colors and rendering of the material on this painting particularly well executed by the artist.
