Pair of candlesticks or torches

Silvered bronze, three parts

Paris, last third of the 18th century

Dimensions : H. 16,5 (cm.)

A pair of candlesticks or torches known as "de poing" or "de toilette" resting on a quadrangular base, the shaft in the form of a column with fluted flutes. Smooth bobèches.

This format has many names. Their compact size meant that they could be moved around at night. They were therefore often placed on small pieces
