

Candle Holder Lamp Ceramic Sculpture Roland Tostivint Brittany Vintage 20th

800 EUR

Signature : Roland Tostivint

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Ceramic

Width : max 29 cm / épaisseur 13 cm

Height : 68 cm

Description

Large polychrome enameled ceramic candle holder lamp signed by Breton R. Tostivint* "unique piece", vintage 20th century period. This sculpture is in good condition and is of remarkable quality. Signed on the bottom. Note: slight wear and tear, see photos. * Roland Tostivint (1933-2008) St-Brieuc. Son of René Tostivint. In Oran, he entered the Beaux-Arts in 1949. From 1950, he learned the trade from a Spanish ceramist, Bartolomé Jorba, a Spanish political refugee, friend of Salvador Dali and the architect Gaudi. He then returned to St Brieuc and became a renowned ceramist. He had his workshop there on rue Fardel from 1958. He subsequently moved to Binic in 1968. Height: 68 cm Width: max 29 cm / thickness 13 cm Reference: 500 822 All photos are on:

Dealer

Luc de Laval Antiquités

Ancient furnishings, Collectibles 18th, 19th

www.antiques-delaval.com

Tel : 02.96.12.19.02

Mobile : 06.09.70.26.39

22 rue Colvestre - BP 26

Tréguier 22220

