Description

This two-panel stained glass window depicts a peaceful landscape. A man is fishing with his feet in the water, another watches him while smoking a pipe on the bridge. In the background we see a small village surrounded by fields and mountains. It feels like we're on vacation.
It is signed Sarrasin, a master glassmaker from Lion, very productive at the beginning of the 20th century.
The stained glass window has been completely restored by our workshops.
