Description

This walnut writing desk has been lacquered in shades of purple and ivory, giving it an elegant and refined look. The lacquering was applied with an antique patina, giving the object a worn and vintage look. The table top features a detailed decoration, which is also repeated on the legs. This thoughtful design adds further aesthetic value to the piece and is a testament to the attention to detail in its creation. The desk is equipped with a drawer positioned in the band, which is characterized by an original brass handle. The legs are worked with a wavy shape, giving a sense of movement and lightness to the object. The plinth feet further add stability to the desk. This piece of furniture was made by an Italian manufacturer during the first half of the 18th century, its style and detailed workmanship
