Description

Burma, Bagan region, 18th century or earlier, very pretty gilded bronze statue with gold leaf representing standing Buddha, holding his monastic robe with both hands. According to the notes of the previous owner, a great lover of Burmese antiquities, this statue was originally buried under a temple and was discovered after the earthquake of 2016. Height 12.2 cm. The scale indicator in the last photograph is a small model of a lighter from a brand known to everyone. Good condition except for the obvious signs of great age; nothing abnormal and no impact on the beautiful aesthetics. We take particular care with our packaging by using optimum protection. The shipment is made with insurance included. Shipping rates: mainland France: 22 euros, countries of the European
