Description

Beautiful pair of Pho dogs made from pottery and feature a turquoise glazed finish. The enamel technique gives them a shiny and shiny appearance. They are shaped with great precision and detail, reflecting the craftsmanship of early 20th century oriental manufacturing. The dogs are represented in a lively and realistic pose, with a cheerful and proud attitude. Both dogs are in a standing position on plinth bases. Pho dogs are a symbol of good luck in Eastern tradition. They are considered protective guardians and bringers of happiness. The presence of these dogs in a home or interior space is often associated with prosperity and harmony.
