Description

Very beautiful games table on high legs in Louis XV style from the Napoleon 3 period of the 19th century. The wood is finely inlaid with floral and plant motifs. The feet are curved, the tips of the feet are made of metal, while metal decorations are present on the top of the feet. The table opens in depth and pivots lengthwise. The game board, once opened, is held in place by a drawer that opens on the right side (also serving as storage for games). The table top measures 116 cm (45.6 inches) x 58 cm (22.8 inches). Very fine and sophisticated workmanship, this table will add elegance to any type of interior decoration.
