Description

Superb Murano glass chandelier. The glass is cut and worked by hand into the shape of leaves. The chandelier is made up of a golden metal structure and 24 sheets of translucent, pearly Murano glass. To the touch, the leaves are smooth on the outside and granite on the inside. The sheets are juxtaposed on 4 levels, they have a hole for perfect adhesion to the structure. The chandelier has 4 bulbs for optimal lighting, highlighting the beauty of the glass work. Impressive manual know-how. Nice dimensions.
