Description

Vase from the 1930s art deco decorated with fruits and acid-etched leaves. Very interesting vase decorated in the cubist way with fruits such as cherries or berries and foliage. Quality work with acid releases and wheel work probably by the Daum house between 1920 and 1927 before the installation of the Lorrain factory in Croismare until 1932. Lorrain signature under the base. Note the excellent condition of this very beautiful art deco vase which constitutes a collector's item as well as a decorative object. Possibility of sending in France and throughout the world by carrier or by secure package.
