Description

Trapezoidal in shape with detached geometric ornaments on the sides and bottom, this bottle is decorated on its two sides with different motifs of sunflowers in natural flower with their leaves on their stem, standing out against a finely textured background.

The cap, held by a fine chain, is finished with an openwork sunflower flower motif.

A chain is attached to the two geometric patterns on the sides and allows it to be worn as a pendant.

Vermeil material. Hallmarks on the collar Boar's head + maker's mark C-winged anchor-G.

Goldsmith Camille GUEYTON, date of inculpation (mark) June 21, 1886

Dimensions 6cm x 4 cm x 1cm
