Description

Beautiful cherry wood table from the 19th century, in the style of the 17th, featuring a frieze drawer and four curved legs connected by a spacer. The lyre-shaped uprights, with elegant curves, are joined by the crosspieces of the X-shaped spacer. The 17th century favored fairly small tables, placed on strongly intersected turned legs, this Louis XIV style table is one a representation. This table has a very beautiful original patina. It can be used as an extra desk or console. France - 19th century - Louis XIV style
