Description

pair of chairs Louis XVI caned chairs in beech wood trimmed in two tones, "Trianon gray" and cream. Model with flat back resting on a fluted base. Their canework is in very good condition and they can be used commonly without any problem. Faithfully inspired by a period model, they date from the second part of the 19th century, around 1860-1880. Their reversible cushions are without stains or wear, well matched in color to the chairs. Seat height 46 cm.
