Description

This pretty pair of articulated andirons in chiseled and finely polished bronze; baroque, of quality, they are beautiful pieces of bronze craftsmanship in the spirit of the reign of Louis XV, on the influence of the "baroque garden. Proudly camped on its base and a beautiful flight the ornamental motif of the covered baroque vase, with beautiful movement. The generous base with claw, volute and pedestal feet is animated as desired, openwork and elegantly decorated with a "trellis" motif giving it the theme and all its lightness, the panache of the vase like its asymmetrical design, the beautiful acanthus scrolls set the tone. Articulated thanks to this system, the depth of the hearth is adjustable, which is a plus for convenience. In good condition having little use, not burned by the fires
