Description

This elegant pair of Chinese porcelain potiches is a masterpiece of refinement and beauty. The vases, decorated with floral motifs in shades of light blue, blue, green and pink, are embellished with elegant ideograms that add a touch of mystery and charm. The most distinctive feature of these works of art is certainly the presence of opening lids, which add an additional level of intricate beauty. The shape of the vases, combined with the refined and sophisticated decorations, makes them a refined and fascinating presence in any environment. Made by Chinese manufacturing from the Qing period of the early 19th century.
