Description

Charming Chinese lacquered wooden chest dating from the end of the 19th / beginning of the 20th century. This trunk is very marked by Asian art, particularly at the lock and handles. The lock is in the shape of a lotus. It is decorated with flower bouquet designs on the front. The decorations are finely painted. The manufacturing is careful and precise, a symbol of magnificent ancient Chinese know-how. The lock and handles are made of brass. The locking system is very interesting. All fittings are brass. It is ideal for storing small objects, blankets, books or magazines. Nice dimensions. This piece of Chinese craftsmanship is a piece of Asian history. Very beautiful work from China late 19th/early 20th century.
