Description

Two major sensual works by "Balma", a Bordeaux sculptor. "The artist who recently left us worked with acacia, lime, red plum, oak and some exotic woods offering us suggestive, sensual sculptures, sometimes slender, sometimes robust. He also worked with steel, marble, sandstone and limestone. In 2009, the National Federation of French Sculpture awarded him the gold medal for European sculpture. We are particularly sensitive and moved by this superb couple because our friend Balma was a fan of Argentine tango and was introduced to this dance by following my Tango Bordeaux workshop. Balma was sensitive to the sensuality of tango and translated sensuality well in his artistic gesture. Jean-Pierre Roche - The City Center - Bordeaux. PAIR, WOMAN AND MAN. Height
