Description
-------------

Set of 6 napkins and matching tablecloth in 1900s/1920s damask linen with a single letter in white and red monogram. The embroidery is very delicate. Damascus is also very beautiful. Art Deco - French manual work. Each napkin and the tablecloth are made of linen damask, thread, and monogrammed with the letter M in the center: the letter M is embroidered in relief with a red border. The tablecloth has the monogram twice. The monograms here are very finely hand-embroidered and surrounded by red fleur-de-lys at each end of the letter. The border of the letter is red to give volume to the monogram. The napkins measure 85cm x 70cm. The tablecloth measures 230 cm x 172cm This very beautiful set of old linen from the beginning of the 20th century is very delicate and refined.
