

Pair Of Empire Procession Torch Holders

480 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Painted metal

Width : 14 cm

Height : 16,5cm

Depth : 9cm

Description

Rare pair of processional torch holders in black and gold painted sheet metal to the glory of St-Polycarpe and dated 1806. St-Polycarpe (in Greek many fruits) was born around 70 and died in 155 or 167, was a direct disciple of the Apostle John and second bishop of Smyrna (today Izmir in Turkey). Died as a martyr for the Faith, this Saint and Apostolic Father is commemorated on February 23 according to Roman martyrology. He was burned alive. Good state of conservation. Early 19th century period.

Dealer

Antiquités Véronique Trindade

Antiquaire généraliste

Tel : 06 07 36 20 53

18, Avenue de la République

Beaune 21200