Description

This chest of drawers in rosewood veneer opens with four identical drawers. The latter are fitted with tubular plexiglass handles set with double chrome-plated metal rings. The upper drawer is decorated with an original functional lock with ovalized entry and its key. The slightly recessed sides are highlighted by large strips profiled on the front of the piece of furniture. The whole rests on two recessed side elements. The drawer interiors are made of mahogany. This chest of drawers will appeal for its refined style and the quality of its wood species.  Period: 1930 Excellent condition. Varnished finish.
