Description
-------------

Large Delft earthenware dish in Chinese style from the late 17th and early 18th centuries. Magnificent dish from this famous city and factory headquarters of the Compagnie des Indes which brought back by boat these very honorable porcelains with blue decorations from China. On site, a typical and highly appreciated production was developed. Here a large dish signed on the back by the workshop of Adrian Kocx who produced from around 1700 to 1725. Very lively floral decoration and magnificent enamel with metallic reflections. Possibility of sending in France and throughout the world by secure package or by professional carrier. Invoice and certificate provided.
