

Kakemono Symbol Of Luck Eggplant Mount Fuji Falcon

170 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Silk

Length : 180 cm

Width : 40 cm

Description

Kakemono or hanging scroll representing the three symbols of luck when we dream of them during the new year, it is the hatsuyume. ichi fuji ni taka san nasubi, the first fuji second the falcon and the third the eggplant. There are also two gods of luck, Ebisu (God of the Oceans, fishermen, good luck, honest work and Commerce) and Daikokuten (God of the land, agriculture, peasants, health and prosperity). This kakemono brings luck and prosperity to its owner.

Dealer

fudo-myoo

japanese art

Mobile : 0641986179

1 boulevard pasteur

Soissons 02200