Description

Amazing oval table in solid oak from the 19TH CENTURY. Once folded, it can be stored along a wall like a console. Composed of 6 legs including 2 lateral which are placed on hinges. Simply turn them to support the flaps. This design technique is interesting, the table is very stable. This atypical piece of furniture is certainly the result of a special order or of an ingenious cabinetmaker. The patina is warm and golden. Length 198cm Width 162cm H 76cm
