Description

A table or counter bell...

From the 19th century...

The arms are articulated to make the bong...

FRENCH provenance

In cast chiseled bronze...

The bronze is of very good quality, with precise carvings, because we can clearly see the eyes, the nails, the details of the feathers and the loincloth...

Even the lower, floral parts are richly worked...

The model is a young girl from distant lands...

The sincoeur in brass (with a pretty sound, very pure and which continues) In 7 parts...

In very good condition...

There must have been a decoration on the jong, which is left in the lower part...

A model that I know is rare, because it
