Description

Two putti feet, in carved walnut form a pendant. Chubby, they look at each other, the bodies are chubby, the position of the arms and feet are symmetrical. One has curly hair, he holds his drape at waist level with his left hand. The other has only three strands of hair on his head. He tightens the drape on the chest with his left hand and brings it back to his right thigh with the other hand. They are sculpted using a mass of wood added when necessary. We can see it on the back of heads, on the outside of an arm, on the tips of noses. Good condition.
