PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

John Pettie. The Little Gourmet

1 600 EUR

Signature : John Pettie

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Oil painting

Width : 64cm

Height : 77cm

Description

Genre painter, historical scenes and illustrator. John Pettie had considerable success as a portrait painter and sometimes depicted his sister in historical costumes. Wood describes his style as vigorous in power and richness. It shows the influence of Van Dijck and Rubens. He experimented with "Chiaroscuro" from 1870. He died in Hastings on February 21, 1893. Different works can be found in several museums in England: NPG London, SNPG, Tate, Mappin AG, Sheffield, Royal Holloway College, Manchester CAG, Leeds AG, Glasgow....(M.Hardie, JP, 1908, Mc Ewan , DA) Little greedy farm girl enjoying a pot of cream in a chiaroscuro setting. Signed lower right.

Dealer

Jacob Norden Fine Antiques

Musical instruments

Tel : 0032477349513

Waterloo 50703