Description

Very beautiful brooch or corsage clip from the Art-Deco period, octagonal in shape, in gold-plated or gilded metal, satin texture finish. This piece of jewelry has certainly never been worn as it is in perfect condition. It bears the signature of Pierre Turin at the bottom right; very barely visible and almost illegible but connoisseurs will easily recognize this famous subject of a young woman called "The Flower Bearer" also published as a medal (around 1926). Woman on the left with her head back, her raised left arm revealing only her eyes and holding above her a basket of flowers which she supports with her right hand. The pin is in perfect condition as well as the closure and its safety system.
