

A Porcelain Candlestick With Famille Rose Enamels - China 18th Century Qianlong Period

1 920 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Porcelain

Height : 17,5cm

Description

A rare model of porcelain candlestick with Famille Rose enamels with various flower decorations.

CHINA 18th

QIANLONG PERIOD (1736-1795)

The quadrangular base is richly decorated with alternating cartridge borders with landscape decoration in purplish enamels and herbs painted in grisaille, as well as a grid frieze and a base decorated with flowers and lemons. The body is painted with iron red enamels, then the central part with a gradient of purple enamels. The upper part is decorated with flowers and the end is bordered by a lanceolate frieze. The candlestick takes the shape of European silverware models.

Dealer

Galerie Drake

Chinese Porcelain & Chinese Works of Art

Mobile : 0689483023

Paris 75011

Height: 17.5cm

Provenance:

- Important Breton collection

A professional restoration at the base, slight wear to the enamels in places.

More photos and information on request.