

Attributed To Peeter Snyers (1681 - 1752), A Young Savoyard

1 500 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Oil painting

Description

Attributed to Peeter Snyers

Flemish painter

Antwerp 1681 - 1752 Antwerp

A young Savoyard with a box holding his pet animal, most probably a marmot

Oil on canvas : 53,5 X 34,0 cm

Unsigned

Frame : 69,3 X 49,1 cm

Peeter Snyers is an interesting painter who remained active in Antwerp during all his career. He is best known as an excellent and daring still life painter. He also painted an important series of market scenes representing the Twelve Months.

The Alpine region of the Savoy was so poor in those days that families would let their children

Dealer

by Jean Moust

old master paintings

Tel : 0032475743753

Fax : /

mariastraat 15

Bruges 8000

work as chimney sweepers in France and beyond in Flanders. They made some extra money with their dancing pet marmots. Snyers painted several of these young, poor lads.

All my paintings stand fully documented on my website:

<https://www.jeanmoust.com/categories/portraits-genre-and-exterior-scenes/snyers-peeter-savoyard-2023/a-young-savoyard-and-his-pet-animal-4426268>