Description

Oval medallion in gilded metal and mother-of-pearl inlaid with floral motifs and a small enameled pansy, containing a miniature representing the portrait of a noble lady dressed in a white dress and a lace scarf with roses in her hair. The small painting, done in oil on a thin ivory plate, bears the artist's signature and the date 1820. Inès d'Esménard (Paris *1789 - +1859) was one of the most important miniaturists listed, very active in Paris in the first half of the 19th century. She was a student of Jean François Hollier, himself a disciple of David and Isabey. Cites Certificate for commercial activities n° IT/CE/2024/MI/00097
