580 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Porcelain

Description

Pair of ornamental baluster-shaped vases in Paris porcelain, handles with radiating masks. Work in the Empire style and Restoration period - early 19th century, 1830s. Beautiful decor in the Sèvres style decorated on the front with landscapes of Italian landscapes in a gilded frame and on the back with historicist scenes from the 17th century. Very beautiful matte and shiny gilding throughout the vase. Quite a large, refined model, they can complete a decoration on a piece of furniture or fireplace. Our vases are in very good condition, accident free. very fresh gilding and remarkably preserved. Height: 26cm
