Description

Rare set of 7 Saint Clément earthenware dinette plates, with floral decoration which has become the emblem of this manufacture, the famous rooster model. These are scale models intended for children's games or their dolls, identical to the pieces they would find on their parents' table. Late 19th century. NB of a similar and compatible model, we also sell a set of Lunéville earthenware platters. The services of Lunéville and Saint Clément were at the end of the 19th century a great classic of all the "good families" of Eastern France. Good general condition, some small chips Diameter 10.5cm
