

Regency Style Mirror In Carved And Gilded Wood. 1950s.

2 000 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Gilted wood

Description

Regency style carved and gilded wooden mirror decorated with acanthus leaves, scrolls and scrolls and violin shape.

French work from the Napoleon III period, circa 1880.

Dimensions: H 100 x W 64 x D 10 cm

Reference: LS553535AD

The Regency style is a style of furniture which dates from approximately 1715 to 1723, the period of the regency of Philippe d'Orléans during the minority of Louis XV.

It succeeds the Louis XIV style and precedes the

Dealer

Jean Luc Ferrand Antiquités

Antique Dealer, Paris Flea Market, Marche Biron.

Tel : 0608784337

Fax : Devis de transport sur demande en fonction de la destination.

85 Rue des Rosiers, Marché Biron, stand 39

Saint-Ouen 93400

Louis XV style. The main materials used are oak, beech, walnut, fir, poplar, blackened pear, exotic, Asian and African woods imported by the East India Company.

Veneering, marquetry, gold leaf gilding and mercury-gilded bronzes are the most widespread techniques during this period. Concerning the ornaments, the decorative motifs are:

background games: grids, diamonds

human motifs: españolaette (originally from the bronze sculptor Cressent), female masks

animal motifs: monkeys, shells, bat

wings plant motifs: palmette, sunflower, gadrooned leaves, acanthus leaves

geometric patterns of Boulle marquetry

exotic patterns: peacock feather, pagodas