Description

Acrylic, ink on paper laminated to cardboard , representing an abstract composition. Workshop stamp on the back: Francois Millon atelier
Brionmonogram lower right FM
François Millon does not define his painting as "pure abstract"; it is, for him, rather imbued with "lyrical abstraction" because there is always a figurative touch in his paintings. "It puts a grain of sand in the sharpness machine. »
Read annotation on the back
François Millon born in 1952 is an experienced painter and printmaker based in France whose works have been exhibited nationally, as well as in Turkey and Sweden. He declares that since he is exposed to the cracks of daily life, to the revelation of his nights, and to great desires, that he paints and engraves them without any message. In his artistic approach,
