Description

Beautiful set of seats including a large basket sofa and two matching Louis XVI period blond walnut convertibles. The original "pincushion" trimmings in good condition (without spring, exclusively with horsehair mounted on straps) were able to be preserved, but a professional upholsterer checked them and supplemented them with horsehair when the need arose. a peasant canvas was stretched behind the seats, and covered with a white canvas on the seats. The joinery has been checked cleaned and a hard primer applied to it. Each polish and new wipe will bring out the pretty reflections of the blond walnut. It should be noted that one unsculpted rear foot (out of eight, the four in the center of which are attached to the original reinforcement at the base of the foot to prevent it from they
