Wooden Christ, 16th century

This Christ shows a very straight posture with little bent legs and feet rotating inside. Rib cage is outlined in a pronounced way with a semi-circle costal margin made in strong relief, and ribs carved in deep ridges. Face depicts a dead Christ with almond shaped closed eyes. The head is slightly resting to the right over the bust, wearing a short beard and hair falling to the back, except for a big lock flapping to the right. Perizonium is made of a cloth animated by thick vertical pleats kept by a rope double coiled around the waist.

A false nails is put on the feet. Head wears a
