Description

Oil on canvas painting from the 40s and 50s in art deco style by Lluïa Navarro Rodon. Very beautiful work representing a view of Ibiza, noted on the back, corresponding to the first period of this great Catalan painter. The artist, born in Barcelona in 1924, painted a series of works during a trip to Castile and Ibiza thanks to a state grant. He was a professor at the School of Applied Arts from 1951 and produced numerous mural works throughout Catalonia. Magnificent piece very art deco inspired highlighting the warmth of this island through the purity and contrast of whites and blues. Possibility of sending in France and throughout the world by professional carrier or by secure package. Possibility of invoice and certificate of authenticity. Two other works by this artist are
