Description

Small clarification: all of our rugs and objects are sent free to France.
Large and wide vase, probably an ancient cauldron from the Kachkai culture originating from ancient Persia, from the 19th century.
It presents a magnificent work of engraving on copper and bronze, in very good state of conservation.
Intertwined plants, stars, flowers, medallions, foliage fill almost the entire surface of this utilitarian object, composing a very elaborate epigraphic decoration.
Two large, securely fixed handles as well as the collar are made of bronze.
This superb large piece gives us a refined example of the art of chasing and engraving on copper and bronze of Persian culture.
