

Pair Of Brutalist Brass Sconces By Svend Aage Holm Sorensen 1960 Denmark

2 200 EUR

Signature : Svend Aage Holm Sorensen

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Brass

Diameter : 31

Depth : 11

Description

Pair of flower-shaped brass wall sconces designed by Svend Aage Holm Sørensen in the 1960s.

Produced by his company Holm Sørensen & Co., this eye-catching style is a true masterpiece and a trademark of the designer Danish.

Wall fixings included Sconces come with cable and plug for your country (USA Australia UK Europe Switzerland Japan)

Svend Aage Holm Sørensen (1913-2004) was a Danish industrial designer and architect trained at the Royal Danish Academy of Sciences fine arts in Copenhagen, who made a significant contribution to the development of modernist design in Denmark.

Holm Sørensen's designs were characterized by

Dealer

Pauline Ricard

Antiquités

Mobile : 0682742136

9 rue Bouguereau

Bordeaux 33000

their simplicity, elegance and functionality, and he was particularly known for his work in lighting design. He was a true master of modernist design and his work was characterized by his experimental approach to materials and forms.

He was known for his innovative use of materials such as glass, wood, metal and even flame-cut brass, which he combined in unexpected and striking ways to create unique and memorable designs.

Holm Sørensen's legacy as a designer continues to be celebrated today and his designs remain popular with collectors and modernist design enthusiasts around the world.