they are both decorated at the neck with a bronze reservoir inside, and with a beautiful, nicely chiseled astragal, receiving the lids forming a potpourris.

these lids are therefore openwork and decorated with flowers and insects, at the top a pretty loop-shaped grip.

two large covered vases, very decorative and of very good quality.

one of the grips on one of the covers has been restored, and the other has a small chip.

otherwise excellent general condition, for a very beautiful pair of covered vases in the spirit of the 18th century, with very beautiful painted decorations and superb colors.

They are spectacular and harmoniously beautiful.
