Victor Gabriel Gilbert 1847-1935

Children and dog playing in the garden

Watercolor and gouache Workshop stamp on the back

He debuted at the Salon of French Artists of 1873, with two paintings, Avant le bal and *Les préparations du diner*³. Towards the end of the 1870s, his taste for naturalism asserted itself and he turned to genre painting with scenes of streets, cafes, markets, in particular that of Les Halles. He obtained a second class medal at the Salon of 1880 and a silver medal at the Universal Exhibition of 1889. He became a member of the Society of French Artists in 1914. Victor Gilbert equally enjoyed painting the freshness and cheerfulness of the childhood in Paris or in the
