Description

Immerse yourself in the timeless elegance of Giuseppe Andreoni's masterful alabaster sculpture, a faithful replica of the iconic Pisa Baptistery. Made in the mid-19th century, this exquisite piece painstakingly captures the grandeur of the original structure, paying homage to its rich past and architectural genius. Measuring 48cm in height with a diameter of 30cm, this superb replica features meticulous attention to detail. Giuseppe Andreoni's craftsmanship shines through as he expertly combines alabaster with colored marble and other stones to recreate the intricate features of the baptistery. The baptistery itself, a marvel of medieval architecture, was designed by Nicola and Giovanni Pisano in 1152. Over the course of a century, this architectural gem was realized,
